

Ledyard Public Library
Internet Permission Form for
Children under 17 years of age

Internet Use Policy:

It is not acceptable to use the Internet for any purpose which violates U.S. or Connecticut laws. This includes but is not limited to transmitting threatening, obscene or harassing materials, or interfering with or disrupting network users, services or equipment. As with all formats of information, patrons must respect copyright laws and licensing agreements.

To the extent practical, technology protection measures/Internet filters shall be used to block or filter Internet, or other forms of electronic communications, access to inappropriate information.

Specifically, as required by the Children's Internet Protection Act, blocking shall be applied to visual depictions of material deemed obscene or child pornography, or to any material deemed harmful to minors.

The Library affirms and acknowledges the rights and responsibilities of parents and guardians to monitor and determine their children's access to Library materials and resources, including those available through the Internet.

The Library will take steps to promote the safety and security of all users of the Library's online computer network.

However, the Library is not and cannot be responsible for maintaining the privacy or confidentiality of personal or personally identifiable information provided by a user to a third party via the Internet.

Internet privileges will be suspended if the use of the Internet workstations is not in keeping with this policy.
